

DISCRIMINATION IN PROVIDING SERVICES IS AGAINST THE LAW

Texarkana Resources complies with all civil rights of federal statutes and related authorities that prohibit discrimination in programs and activities receiving federal financial assistance. Therefore, Texarkana Resources does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, genetic information, pregnancy, or any other characteristic protected by law, in the admission, access to and treatment in Texarkana Resources' programs and activities, as well as hiring or employment practices.

Texarkana Resources operates in compliance with...

Section 504, Rehabilitation Act of 1973;

Federal Regulations implementing Section 504;

Section 101 (A)(6), Rehabilitation Act of 1973;

Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964;

Title 8, Rights and Responsibilities of the Handicapped;

Article 5221K, Commission on Human Rights Act (1983); and

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

If you believe that you have been discriminated against because of your race, color, religion, gender, gender expression, age, national origin, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, genetic information, pregnancy, or any other characteristic protected by law, you may file a complaint with:
